CAUTION.

Beware of so called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co's Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copyright laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

R. L. POLK & CO.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAWS.

The territorial board of health, composed of four regular physicians, two homoeopaths and one eclectic, appointed by the governor, has charge of admissions to practice medicine.

"The board shall, upon the production of evidence satisfactory to it, license any person who is the holder of a diploma from a medical college in good standing, to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics in New Mexico, and shall require all persons not the holders of such diplomas to pass such examination as to the board shall seem proper. In the verification of all diplomas and the conducting of all examinations, the president and secretary of said board shall be and are hereby empowered to administer oaths, and any person making a false oath or affidavit before said board shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and be subject to punishment for that crime. Every person holding a certificate shall have it recorded in the office of the probate clerk of the county wherein the practitioner resides, within thirty days after said certificate is issued; it must be again recorded in any county to which the practitioner may remove permanently. The fact that no certificate shall be found in the county where any person is practicing or offering to practice medicine, shall be accepted by the court as prima facie evidence that no such certificate has been issued, and shall throw the burden of proving that he has a certificate upon the defendant in any suit or prosecution begun against him for the violation of the provisions of this act.

"For the purpose of this act, the words 'practice of medicine' shall mean to open an office for such purpose, or to announce to the public or to any private individual in any way, a desire or willingness or readiness to treat the sick or afflicted, or investigate or diagnose or offer to investigate or diagnose, any physical or mental ailment or disease of any person; or to suggest, recommend, prescribe or direct, for the use of any person, any drug, medicine, appliance or other agency, whether material or not material, for the cure, relief or palliation of any ailment or disease of the mind or body, or for the cure or relief of any wound, fracture or bodily injury or deformity, after having received, or with the intent of receiving thereof, either directly or indirectly, any bonus, gift or compensation. Provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit gratuitous service in cases of emergency, or the domestic administration of family remedies, or women from practicing midwifery; and this act shall not apply to surgeons in the service of the United States in the discharge of their official duties."

Examinations will be required of all applicants to practice medicine in New Mexico, who shall have graduated after July, 1897, from any medical college which does not require of matriculants as a minimum evidence of sufficient general education, a high school certificate or its equivalent; and for graduation, proof of four years' study of medicine and four terms of lectures occurring in four separate years. The previous standard of three years' study and three terms of lectures in three separate years, with the preliminary requirement of matriculants of high school certificate, or its equivalent, will be maintained for all applicants who graduated between July 1, 1890, and July 1, 1897. According to a resolution of the territorial board of health adopted April 24, 1899, each applicant must furnish as references regarding moral character and professional standing, two or more names of reputable physicians, preferably the president and secretary of state licensing board, or president and secretary of state medical society where applicant last resided. Fee for certificate on diploma, $15; on examination, $25, not returnable. Applicants must present evidence of preliminary education with their diplomas. Meetings of board for examinations on first Mondays of June and December. Secretary of board of health, Dr. W. G. Hope, Albuquerque.—Journal of the American Medical Association.

NEW YORK.

CAPITAL, ALBANY.

Population of State, 7,268,012.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 12,279.

New York, one of the original thirteen states, has, according to the United States Census of 1900, a population of 7,268,012, as compared with a population in 1890 of 5,997,853, representing an increase during the ten years of 1,270,159, or 21.2 per cent. The following table shows increase in population since 1790:

1790.....	340,120	1850... ..	3,097,394
1800.....	589,051	1860.....	3,880,735
1810.....	959,049	1870... ..	4,382,759
1820.....	1,372,111	1880.. ..	5,082,871
1830.....	1,918,608	1890. ..	5,997,853
1840.	2,428,921	1900.....	7,268,012

The total land surface is, approximately, 47,620 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 126.0; 1900, 152.6. It extends from 71 degrees, 51 minutes, to 79 degrees, 47 minutes, 25 seconds west longitude and from 40 degrees, 29 minutes, 40 seconds, to 45 degrees, 0 minutes, 42 seconds north latitude, and is bounded on the north and west by Canada, from which it is separated by the St. Lawrence river, Lake Ontario, Niagara river and Lake Erie; on the south by New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and on the east by Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont. The climate is healthful, although marked by extremes of heat and cold. The winters in the Adirondack region are long and severe. The mean annual temperature as observed at Albany is 47.95 and in the City of New York, 51.83. The rainfall varies from 44 inches in the Hudson Valley to 32 in the valley of the St. Lawrence. The extent of the sea coast line is 248 miles, of the lake coast line, 352 miles. The surface is greatly diversified and includes rolling plateaus, level valleys and lofty mountain chains. The principal rivers are the Hudson, which rises in the Adirondacks, and, pursuing a southerly course empties in New York Bay, its total length is about 300 miles, and for the last 150 it is navigable for the largest vessels; the St. Lawrence, which washes a portion of the northern boundary and with its numerous tributaries drains and irrigates that portion of the state; the Oswego, Niagara, Allegheny, Susquehanna, Mohawk, and Delaware. Its mountain system includes the northern terminus of the Alleghanian Blue Ridge in the Highlands of the Hudson, and the Adirondack groups in the northeastern angle of the state. There are over 1,300 lakes. This is a fine agricultural state, producing in abundance everything known to its latitude. It is the most important state in the Union in the extent of dairy farming and nurseries. The fruit growing interests are very large, especially apples, pears and grapes. The manufacturing interests of this, the 'Empire State' of the Union, are most extensive, and the state ranks first in the value of its manufactured products. New York City, the second largest city in the world, only exceeded by London in size, and the most important seaport on the western hemisphere, is the metropolis and the leading manufacturing city of the country. Iron ore is mined and bluestone, limestone, sandstone and marble are plentiful. Oil is found in abundance in the western portion. The literary, philanthropic and religious institutions are on a par commensurate with the wealth, intelligence and progress of the state.

Deaths in 1900, 130,268; rate per 1,000 of population, 17.9.

SUMMARY OF REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE TO PRACTICE.

All requirements for admission should be completed at least one week before examinations.

They are as follows:

1. Evidence that applicant is more than 21 years of age (Form 1).
2. Certificates of moral character from not less than two physicians in good standing (Form 2).
3. Evidence that applicant has the general education required, preliminary to receiving the degree of bachelor or doctor of medicine in this state (Medical student certificate.)
4. Evidence that applicant has studied medicine not less than four full school years of at least nine months each, including four satisfactory courses of at least six months each, in four different calendar years in a medical school registered as maintaining at the time a satisfactory standard. New York medical schools and New York medical students shall not be discriminated against by the registration of any medical school out of the state, whose minimum graduation standard is less than that fixed by statute for New York medical schools.

The increase in the required course of medical study from three to four years does not take effect till January 1, 1898, and does not apply to students who matriculated before that date and received the degree of M. D. before January 1, 1902, (Form 1).

First exemption.—“The regents may in their discretion accept as the equivalent for any part of the 3d and 4th requirement, evidence of five or more years' reputable practice of medicine, provided that such substitution be specified in the license.”

5. Evidence that applicant “has received the degree of doctor or bachelor of medicine from some registered medical school, or a diploma or license conferring full right to practise medicine in some foreign country.” (Form 3 or original credentials).

6. The candidate must pass examinations in anatomy, physiology and hygiene, chemistry, surgery, obstetrics, pathology and diagnosis, therapeutics, practice and materia medica. The questions “shall be the same for all candidates, except that in therapeutics, practice and materia medica all the questions submitted to any candidate shall be chosen from those prepared by the board selected by that candidate, and shall be in harmony with the tenets of that school as determined by its state board of medical examiners.”

Second Exemption.—“Applicants examined and licensed by other state examining boards registered by the regents as maintaining standards not lower than those provided by this article, and applicants who matriculated in a New York state medical school before June 5, 1890, and who received the degree M. D. from a registered medical school before August 1, 1895, may, without farther examination, on payment of $10 to the regents and on submitting such evidence as they may require, receive from them an indorsement of their licenses or diplomas, conferring all rights and privileges of a regents' license issued after examination.”

7. A fee of $25, payable in advance.

MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations for license to practise medicine in this state will be held as follows:

January 28-31.....	1902
May 20-23.....	1902
June 24-27.....	1902
September 23-26.....	1902
January 27-30.....	1903

PLACES.

New York, Albany, Syracuse, Buffalo. Each candidate is notified as to exact place.

DAILY PROGRAM.

Morning, 9:15.—Tuesday: Anatomy. Wednesday: Chemistry. Thursday—Obstetrics. Friday: Therapeutics.

Afternoon, 1:15.—Physiology and Hygiene. Surgery. Pathology and Diagnosis.

The Regents of the University have supervision of the regulation of admission to practice. The Regents appoint three separate State Boards of Medical Examiners representing the Medical Society of the State of New York, the Homoeopathic Medical Society of the State of New York, and the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of New York. Each board submits to the regents lists of suitable questions in anatomy, physiology and hygiene, chemistry, surgery, obstetrics, pathology and diagnosis, and therapeutics, including practice and materia medica. From these lists the regents prepare question papers for the examination which are the same for all candidates, “except that in therapeutics, practice and materia medica all the questions submitted to any candidate shall be chosen from those prepared by the board selected by that candidate and shall be in harmony with the tenets of the school as determined by its state board of medical examiners.” The examinations are conducted by a regents' examiner, not a member of any of the several boards, and are exclusively in writing and in English. The questions and answer papers are examined by the respective examining boards and an official report on the same transmitted to the board of regents, signed by the president and secretary of the examining board, stating the standing of each candidate and recommending or not for license. The regents issue the licenses when they are satisfied the candidate is qualified. James Russell Parsons, Secretary Regents of the University, State Capitol, Albany.

CAUTION.

Beware of so called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co.'s Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copyright laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

FOR MECHANICO-THERAPEUTICS OR SWEDISH MOVEMENTS AND MASSAGE BY MACHINERY.

THE most complete Institute of its kind. Nearly one hundred apparatus invented by DR. ZANDER, of Stockholm, Sweden, including

VIBRATION,
PERCUSSION,
KNEADING,
ARTIFICIAL HORSEBACK,
and STATIONARY BICYCLE.

The profession is cordially invited to investigate and give a trial to the method of DR. ZANDER.

The wonderful success of recent years which the Zander system has obtained under the protection of the very conservative and critical profession of Germany and Austria, ought to be a guarantee of its ultimate success and recognition by the medical profession all over the world. Despite the great expense of a complete Zander outfit we find them now at nearly every important health resort in Germany, Austria and Holland. In a great many of these places, like Baden-Baden and Wiesbaden, etc., they are owned and managed by the State Governments.

The New York Institute is the first one established in this country.

All cases in which massage and exercise are indicated will be received and physician's orders strictly carried out.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

CAUTION.

Beware of so called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co's Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copy-right laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

CAUTION.

Beware of the so-called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co.'s Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copy-right Laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAW.

The Board of Medical Examiners of the State of North Carolina is appointed by the State Medical Society. The law as amended in 1899 provides that the Board shall examine all applicants who exhibit a diploma or furnish satisfactory proof of graduation from a medical college in good standing requiring an attendance of not less than three years and supplying such facilities for clinical instruction as shall meet the approval of the Board, for license to practice medicine or surgery or any of the branches thereof, on the following branches of medical science, namely: Anatomy, physiology, surgery, pathology, medical hygiene, chemistry, pharmacy, materia medica, therapeutics, obstetrics and the practice of medicine, and if, on such examination, they be found competent, to grant to each applicant a license or diploma, authorizing him to practice medicine and surgery, or any of the branches thereof: Provided, five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum and four of those present shall be agreed as to the qualifications of the applicant: Provided, that the requirement of three years' attendance shall not apply to those graduating prior to January 1, 1900: Provided, further, that license or other satisfactory evidence of standing as a legal practitioner in another state shall be accepted in lieu of a diploma and entitle to examination.

To prevent delay and inconvenience, two members of the Board of Medical Examiners may grant a temporary license to any applicant who shall comply with the requirements as to graduation prescribed and make report thereof to the next regular meeting of the Board: Provided, such temporary license shall not continue in force longer than the next regular meeting of the Board, and such temporary license shall in no case be granted after the applicant has been refused a license by the Board of Medical Examiners.

The Board of Medical Examiners shall assemble at the same time and place when and where the Medical Society assembles, which society shall assemble at least once in every year at such time and place as the said society, at its next preceding meeting, shall have fixed; and the said Board shall remain in session from day to day until all applicants who may present themselves for examination within the first five days after its meeting shall have been examined and disposed of: Provided, that the said Board may, at its discretion, meet not more than one week before the said society, but always in the same place; and that one additional meeting in each year may be held at some suitable point in the state if deemed advisable.

The Board shall have power to demand of every applicant thus licensed the sum of $10 before issuing a license, and the sum of $5 for each temporary license, to be paid to the Secretary of the Board. Midwives and outside consultants are exempted. Licenses must be registered with the clerk of the Superior Court within thirty days after receiving same.—Journal of the American Medical Association.

NORTH DAKOTA.

CAPITAL, BISMARCK.

Population of State, 319,146.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 294.

North Dakota, known as the "World's Bread Basket," from its wealth of wheat crop, was admitted to the Union in 1889 and has, according to the United States Census of 1900, a population of 319,146, as compared with a population in 1900 of 182,719, showing an increase during the decade of 136,427, or 74.7 per cent., the largest percentage of increase of any state in the Union except one. It extends from 46 degrees to 49 degrees north latitude, and from 96 degrees, 22 minutes, 30 seconds to 104 degrees west longitude, and is bounded on the north by the British Possessions, on the west by Montana, on the east by Minnesota, and on the south by South Dakota. It is 212 miles in length, has an average breadth of 340 miles, and comprises an area of 72,312 square miles.

The temperature varies during the year from 49 degrees below zero to 107 Fahrenheit. The winters are cold and much snow falls. The average rainfall is about 18 inches. The atmosphere is clear and dry, and owing to the elevation malarial diseases are nearly unknown, whilst pulmonary complaints are comparatively rare. There is an earlier spring than in Eastern States in same latitude.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAW.

The Governor shall appoint a Board of Examiners to be known as the State Board of Medical Examiners, consisting of nine members, of whom eight shall be practicing physicians in good standing.

All persons before commencing the practice of medicine, surgery or obstetrics, in this State, shall apply to the Board for a license so to do, and such applicant shall submit to an examination in the following branches: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, materia medica, therapeutics, diseases of women and children, diseases of the nervous system, diseases of the eye and ear, medical jurisprudence and such other branches as the Board deems advisable, and present evidence of having attended three courses of lectures of at least six months each; the Board shall cause such examination to be practical and scientific and sufficient to test the candidate's fitness to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics. If such applicant passes the prescribed examination, the board shall grant him a license to practice medicine, surgery and obstetrics in this State, which license shall be signed by the president and secretary of the Board and attested by the seal thereof. The fee for such examination shall be twenty dollars, to be applied by the Board toward paying the expenses thereof.

OHIO,

CAPITAL, COLUMBUS.

Population of State 4,157,545.
(U. S. Census of 1900.)
Number of Physicians, 8,426.

Ohio was organized as a state, November 19, 1802. It has, according to the United States Census of 1900, a population of 4,157,545, as compared with a population in 1890, of 3,672,316, representing an increase during the decade of 485,229, or 13.2 per cent. The following table shows the increase in population since 1800:

1800.....	45,365	1860.....	2,339,511
1810.....	230,760	1870.....	2,665,260
1820.....	581,295	1880.....	3,198,062
1830.....	937,903	1890.....	3,672,316
1840.....	1,519,467	1900.....	4,157,545
1850.....	1,980,329

The total land surface of Ohio is, approximately, 40,760 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the census of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 90.1; 1900, 102.0. It extends from 38 degrees, 25 minutes, to 42 degrees north latitude, and from 80 degrees, 28 minutes, to 84 degrees, 42 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by Michigan and Lake Erie, on the south and southeast by the Ohio river, which separates it from Kentucky and West Virginia, on the east by Pennsylvania, and on the west by Indiana. The climate is mild and salubrious. The mean annual temperature is about 50° in the northern tier of counties; 51° in the central part of the state, and 54° in the most southerly parts, along the banks of the Ohio river. The average rainfall is about 41 inches, being the greatest along the valley of the Ohio.

Ohio has no elevations that could be termed mountains, but it is far from being a level plain. With the exception of the northwestern part, it is a tableland, having a mean elevation above the sea of 1,000 feet, the inequalities of which are the result of the erosion or excavation of valleys and ravines by streams of water. A ridge or rather a swell of the ground forms the divide between the waters flowing north into Lake Erie and those flowing south into the Ohio river. Near the 40th parallel extends a belt of hills from east to west, through the middle of the state, abounding in highly picturesque scenery. Toward the south the valleys cut out by the streams grow deeper and deeper, until they reach the valley of the Ohio river, which is several hundred feet below the general level of the state. The surface of that part of the state which lies north of the water-shed is generally level, and has a gentle inclination toward the lake.

Ohio has a large number of rivers and a lake front of 230 miles. The principal rivers are the Ohio, Little Beaver, Muskingum, Hocking, Scioto, Mahoning, Little Miami, Great Miami, Vermillion, Ashtabula, Cuyahoga, Portage, Maumee, Sandusky, Huron, Black, Chagrin and Rocky.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

OKLAHOMA.

CAPITAL, GUTHRIE.

Population of Territory, 398,331.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 819.

Oklahoma, meaning "Beautiful Land," was only a dozen years ago given up to the Indians and formed part of the Indian Territory. On April 22, 1889, it was opened to settlement by the proclamation of President Harrison, and in one day 50,000 people rushed in. The same day a national bank was opened. The United States Census, of 1900, shows a population of 398,331, and in addition 5,927 Indians not taxed. The opening of the Indian Reservation to settlement, August, 1901, added many thousands to the population immediately. About 12,000 families received new lands, and became residents of the territory at that time. This means an accession of about 50,000 or 60,000 to the territory's inhabitants. No state of the original thirteen, except Virginia, had so many inhabitants when entering the new Union as Oklahoma has at this moment. It has a larger population than Vermont, North Dakota and several other states, twice as many people as Delaware; has cities and towns dotted over territory which was practically an Indian reservation two decades ago, has taxable property to the value of $150,000,000, and an annual production of wealth amounting to $75,000,000. It is bounded on the north by Kansas and Colorado, on the south by Texas and the Indian Territory, on the east by Missouri, and on the west by New Mexico. The Canadian and Arkansas rivers with their tributaries drain the territory. The climate is warm and dry, the western being the colder portion; the mean average temperature is 58 degrees. The mean annual rainfall is 31.2 inches. It is essentially an agricultural and stock-raising territory, its location, climate and arable soil uniting to produce magnificent crops of grain, cotton and all kinds of fruit, while the western prairies, covered with nutritious grasses afford grazing lands of the finest description. The cotton crop of Oklahoma for 1900 yielded over $8,000,000, and a notable product is the manufacture of cottonseed oil, which has grown up in connection with the rapid development of the cotton crop. Large sections are underlaid with coal deposits; salt and gypsum are plentiful, and iron ore has been found. There are 800 churches, about 200 newspapers, and over $600,000 is annually expended for school purposes.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

MEDICAL LAW OF OKLAHOMA.

No person shall be permitted to practice medicine in any of its departments in this territory, unless he be a graduate of a medical college, or unless upon examination before a board composed of the Superintendent of Public Health and two other physicians to be selected by the Territorial Board of Health (fee, $30.00), such person shall be found proficient in the practice of medicine and surgery, and shall be found upon proof to have been actually engaged in the practice of medicine for a term of not less than 5 years, and no person shall practice medicine unless he be of good moral character and is not an habitual drunkard. Any person possessing the qualifications mentioned in this section shall, upon presentation of his diploma, or proof thereof by affidavit if the same is lost, or destroyed, and upon the affidavit of two reputable citizens from the county where he resides that applicant possesses the qualifications of a physician, as prescribed herein, to the Superintendent of Public Health, together with a fee of two dollars, receive from such Superintendent of Public Health, a license, certifying the applicant to be a practicing physician, and having the qualifications for such, as prescribed in this section, which license shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in the county where such practicing physician resides. Any person who practices medicine or attempts to practice medicine without complying with the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this section who shall profess publicly to be a physician and to prescribe for the sick, or who appends to his name M. D., but nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit students from prescribing under the supervision of preceptors, or to prohibit gratuitous services in cases of emergency, nor shall this section apply to commissioned surgeons in the U. S. Army and Navy.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act, or who shall prevent the several officers of this Public Health Board, or persons employed by them, from performing any of the duties prescribed in this act to be performed by such officers, or any practicing physician who shall fail to report to the County Superintendent of Health the existence of any contagious or infectious disease, and any person who shall wilfully conceal any case of contagious or infectious disease, either among persons or animals, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor. The District Court shall, upon complaint of any member of the Territorial Board of Health or the County Board of Health where resides, have power to cancel any license that may be issued to any person to practice medicine where such license was fraudulently obtained, or where the person to whom such license was issued has been guilty of violating any provisions of this act.

CAUTION.

Beware of so called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co's Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copyright laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAW REGULATING THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE.

The State Board of Medical Examiners, consisting of three regulars, one homoeopathic and one eclectic physician, is appointed by the Governor.

Section 3 of the Medical Act reads: Every person desiring to practice medicine and surgery, or either of them, in any of their or its branches in the State, shall make a written application to said Board for a license so to do, which application shall be supported and accompanied by an affidavit of such application (applicant), setting forth the actual time spent by the applicant in the study of medicine and surgery, and when, whether such study was in an institution of learning, and if so, the name and location thereof, and if not in such (an) institution, where and under whose tutorship such study was prosecuted, the time said applicant shall have been engaged in the actual practice, if at all, of medicine and surgery, or either of them, and where the applicant was located during the time of such practice, and the age of the applicant at the time of making application; such application and affidavit to be filed and preserved of record in the office of the secretary of said Board. Such applicant, at the time and place designated by said Board, or at the regular meeting of said Board, shall submit to an examination in the following branches, to-wit: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, materia medica, therapeutics, practice of medicine, surgery, obstetrics, diseases of women, medical jurisprudence and such other branches as the Board shall deem advisable. Said Board shall cause such examination to be both scientific and practical and of sufficient severity to test the candidate's fitness to practice medicine and surgery, which examination shall be by written or printed, or partly written or partly printed, questions and answers, and the same shall be filed and preserved of record in the office of the secretary of said Board. After examination, if the same is satisfactory, said Board shall grant a license to such applicant to practice medicine and surgery in the State of Oregon, which said license can only be granted by the consent of not less than four (4) members of said Board, except as hereinafter provided, in (and) which said license shall be signed by the president and secretary of said Board, and attested by the seal thereof. The fee for such examination shall be ten (10) dollars, and shall be paid by the applicant to the treasurer of said Board toward paying the expenses thereof; and such Board may refuse or revoke a license for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, subject, however, to the right of such applicant to appeal from the decision of said board refusing or revoking such license, as hereinafter provided; provided, that all persons who have been regularly licensed under heretofore existing laws of this State, and have complied with the provisions thereof, shall be taken and considered as licensed physicians under this act, and the secretary of the Board herein provided for shall enter the names of such persons upon the register kept by him, as licensed physicians and surgeons, upon the written application of such person, accompanied with such license heretofore regularly issued.

FACULTY OF MEDICINE

The Board meets in Portland on the first Tuesday in January, April and July. No temporary permit granted.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

PENNSYLVANIA.

CAPITAL, HARRISBURG.

Population of State, 6,302,115.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 9,684.

Pennsylvania, one of the original thirteen states, has, according to the U. S. Census of 1900, a population of 6,302,115, as against 5,258,014 in 1890, representing an increase during the decade of 1,044,101, or 19.9 per cent. The following table shows the increase in population since 1790:

1790...	434,373	1850.	2,311,786
1800.....	602,365	1860.	2,906,215
1810.....	810,091	1870.	3,521,951
1820.....	1,047,507	1880.....	4,282,891
1830.....	1,348,233	1890.....	5,258,014
1840.....	1,724,033	1900.	6,302,115

The total land surface of Pennsylvania is, approximately, 44,985 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 116.9; 1900, 140.1. It is the second state in the Union as regards wealth and population, extends from 39 degrees 43 minutes to 42 degrees 15 minutes north latitude, and from 74 degrees 40 minutes to 80 degrees 41 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by the State of New York and Lake Erie, on the south by Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia, on the east by New York and New Jersey, and on the west by Ohio and West Virginia. It has the shape of a rectangle which is 303 miles long from east to west and 176 wide from south to north. Its boundaries are straight lines, with the exception of the eastern, which is formed by the Delaware river, and the western extremity of the northern, which is formed by Lake Erie. The state is naturally divided into three parts, a southeastern district of plains and scattered hills, a mountain belt of symmetrical and parallel ranges; and a western table land of a rolling surface, deeply furrowed by fertile valleys. The principal rivers are the Susquehanna, Delaware, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Juniata, Monongahela, Schuylkill, Wyoming, Cumberland and Youghiogheny. The climate varies considerably with the elevation above the sea,

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

INNWOOD

DR. S. ELIZABETH WINTER,
 Physician-in-Charge,

Late Assistant Physician to Friends'
 Asylum for the Insane, Frankford, Penn'a.

LOCATION.

Innwood is located in Lower Merion Township, Montgomery County, on the Schuylkill Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the Schuylkill Division and Main Line of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad. Within twenty minutes' drive are Bryn Mawr, Haverford, Rosemont, and Villa Nova, the attractiveness of these beautiful suburbs being so generally known as to require no extended mention.

Innwood combines the advantages of a Sanitarium, a Hospital, and a home, without the unpleasant surroundings of a hospital. Its proximity to the great centre of medical science offers advantages that should receive the careful consideration of the friends or guardians of those suffering from nervous or mental disturbances. Its aim is to afford a quiet, secluded home for that class of patients who do not require the restraint of a hospital, but who do require medical supervision and rest. It is the only institution in the United States of its kind devoted exclusively to the care of women patients.

Only women are admitted for treatment, and these to a limited number. This enables the physician-in-charge to make close and careful study of each individual case, special personal care being the particular feature of the work. When desired, the best medical talent in the country can be called in consultation.

Innwood is conducted on a liberal scale, and the accommodations, table, and other appointments are such as are suited to the most fastidious patient. Trained nurses in constant attendance, skilled in the use of massage and the modern methods of treatment.

Reference may not only be made to the Statutory Visitors, 1225 Sansom Street, Philadelphia, but to the leading members of the medical profession.

Patients may place themselves under treatment voluntarily, or by physician's certificate.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAW

The medical council, a body composed of the lieutenant-governor, the attorney-general, the secretary of internal affairs, the superintendent of public instruction, the president of the state board of health and the presidents of three state boards of medical examiners, have the supervision of the examination of candidates to practice medicine in the state. These, except the secretary and treasurer, serve without pay. There are also appointed by the governor three boards of medical examiners of seven members each, representing the several medical societies of the State of Pennsylvania, the regular, the homeopathic and eclectic, from lists furnished by them. The fees for examinations, after payment of current expenses, are apportioned pro rata to the members of the several examining boards according to the number of candidates examined by each. These boards submit to the medical council a list of questions from which the council makes up the questions for each examination. The examinations, which are in writing, are conducted by the respective boards and the results transmitted to the council, which issues the licenses to those who have successfully passed.

"A preliminary examination shall be required from all candidates for medical license in the following branches, to-wit, arithmetic, grammar, geography, orthography, American history, physiology and hygiene, and English composition. The diploma of a college, diploma of an academy, seminary, normal school or high school or a teacher's permanent certificate; or a student's certificate of examination for admission to the freshman class in a literary college, shall be accepted in lieu of such examination." Preliminary examinations are held under direction of the medical council in June preceding the examinations by the state examining boards, and in October after the opening of the medical colleges, at Philadelphia and in Western Pennsylvania.

Section 13 of the medical practice law reads: "From and after the first day of July, 1894, any person not heretofore authorized to practice medicine and surgery in this state, and desiring to enter upon such practice, may deliver to the secretary of the medical council, upon the payment of a fee of $25, a written application for license, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is more than 21 years of age, is of good moral character, and has obtained a competent common school education, and has received a diploma conferring the degree of medicine from some legally incorporated medical college of the United States, or a diploma or license conferring the full right to practice all the branches of medicine and surgery in some foreign country. Applicants who shall have received their degree in medicine after the first day of July, 1894, must have pursued study of medicine for at least three years, including three regular courses of lectures, in different years, in some legally incorporated medical college or colleges, prior to granting of said diploma, or foreign license, and after the first day of July, 1895, such applicants must have pursued the study of medicine for at least four years, including three regular courses of lectures, in different years, in some legally incorporated medical college, or colleges, prior to the granting of said diploma or foreign license. Such proof shall be made, if required, upon affidavit. Upon the making of said payment and proof, the medical council, if satisfied with the same, shall issue to said applicant an order for examination before such one of the state boards of medical examiners as the applicant for license may select. In case of failure at any such examination the candidate, after the expiration of six months, and within two years, shall have the privilege of a second examination by the same board to which application was first made, without the payment of an additional fee; and it is provided further, that applicants examined and licensed by the state board of medical examiners or state boards of health of other states, on payment of a fee of $15 to the medical council, and on filing in the office of the medical council a copy of such license certified by the affidavit of the president and secretary of such board showing also that the standard of acquirements adopted by the said state board of medical examiners or state board of health, is substantially the same, as is provided by sections 11, 12 and 13 of this act, shall without further examination receive a license conferring on the holder thereof all the rights and privileges provided by sections 14 and 15 of this act."

Licenses must be registered with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas and in the county of residence; fee $1. The law contains a reciprocity clause, but only certificates of New York are accepted and (until recently, New Jersey). The usual exemptions of government officers, outside consultants, border practice, etc., are made in the law.—Journal of the American Medical Association.
